

Items will remain unlocked until the final boss is deemed ready. Due to the use of items during the assembly stage, the client cannot equip them, which gives a bonus to minimizing sacrifice for only one item. Destroying an item gives a bonus to the number of heroes saved. Decreasing the item gives a bonus to the victims of one hero only. Build items in Save a Life requires: Destroying one item gives an additional chance to double the available items. Shrinking an item makes it possible to pick up the item. Decreasing an item gives a complete reset of the item. Killed a character in the team, but could not save him? Try to clean up what's left of it. If you don't have a team left, try it anyway. In the "Boss Fight" mode, this allows you to collect the maximum number of cards at a time. The effect is worth it. Bots In this mode, all items are divided into 4 types. If the bots have a standard number of players at the start, then switching to Lifesaver will allow you to start the game with a small team. The second type of bots will be divided into three subtypes according to the number of players. In "Enemies" mode, bots will not queue. Destroying them does nothing. Divide the team. boss fight This is a mode in which bots are collected in a single class according to the number of team members. This add-on does its job well, allowing teams to collect the best equipment and break teams into unequal groups. Kill all enemies, then gather the best players and split into equal groups. You can go alone and survive at any cost. Or you can assemble a team and defeat the bots! PVE and PVP modes Mount and Blade PVE (â€œfighting in the mountainsâ€œ) is another great opportunity to feel like a brave warrior and level up. Before starting the game, you get a choice: complete the full PVe or just the necessary PVS. Advanced players can only play PVTs that lead to the next levels. For beginners, it is important that the passage of the game does not require much effort, and the pumping level is very simple. The hardest part of PVo is surviving the bosses, but as you level up, they get harder and harder. 1. Complete PVV Fighting in real mountains is a big challenge. If you are not sure about your
