We appreciate your interest in our company and products. Our site has not been updated with the new Apple iOS release and is being updated as we speak. We apologize for the inconvenience but we want our site to be 100% accessible and usable for everyone, both users and developers. We are working full time on a full game client for all mobile devices and want to give all iPhone users the best experience possible. The iOS version of the game is on a separate development team and will be ready to release in the next few months. We have to cover our backs and are giving as much attention to Apple as we can to make sure our game works with their new devices.Â Â Â Â Â Â Â

The main tactical role of the infantry is not fighting the enemy, but to support, or attempt to support, the artillery.
