The Centre on Monday informed the Supreme Court that it would place before it suggestions on further socio-economic development of the Union Territory of Puducherry, its Union Territory of Puducherry council and the pending cases in this regard. A bench, comprising Justices Arun Mishra and Navin Sinha, was informed by Additional Solicitor General Tushar Mehta that after the suggestions on the matter were placed before it, the Apex Court would hear the matter. The court issued notice to the Centre and asked it to file its suggestions by August 13. Observing that the Centre was directly or indirectly at the helm of affairs in Puducherry, it directed the Centre to reply by filing its suggestions on the matter. The Centre had moved the top court in January seeking its guidance on the merger of the dual-calendared Tidel-Tirunelveli district of Tamil Nadu and Puducherry. The Tamil Nadu government had in May 2017 moved the apex court seeking a direction to merge two administrative units in Tamil Nadu - Tidel-Tirunelveli and Puducherry. It alleged that Puducherry was not amenable to the Centre's direction and it was necessary to merge Tidel-Tirunelveli and Puducherry to implement the Constitution. The Centre later informed the court that it would place before it its suggestions on the matter. The Tamil Nadu government had on May 16 moved the apex court seeking its direction to merge the two places. The bench, in its order on May 16, had said: "If we are not convinced (of the need for merger), why has the Centre not done this in the 50-odd years of the Constitution of India? If it has not done this, is it so hard to do so?"
