Records the story of a mysterious girl and a young man who are 'brainwashed' and seemingly in love, but in reality, they are opposites of each other... Final Fantasy Tactics A2: Grimoire of the Rift is a fan-made enhancement sequel to the popular tactical RPG Final Fantasy Tactics. Originally released in 2004, Grimoire of the Rift was developed as a fix for the many bugs, glitches, and changes in the original version. The PC version was released in 2006 and the console versions in 2007. Final Fantasy Tactics A2: Grimoire of the Rift follows the story of two siblings, Zyrstin and Zyrham, and their struggle to liberate their home continent from the evil clutches of the Zodiac Empire. Though the expanded Grimoire of the Rift features improvements upon the original, they are mostly cosmetic in nature, aside from some minor gameplay changes that have been incorporated into the combat system. The Grimoire of the Rift started as Final Fantasy Tactics -- almost an unheard of title for Nintendo, Square-Enix saw the game's potential and quickly purchased the rights. At this time, the developers began work on the project's sequel, Final Fantasy Tactics: The War of the Lions. A demo of the game was released for the Famicom, PC and Playstation. The War of the Lions was released in Japan, and only had minor changes from the draft demo. The War of the Lions was met with mixed reviews, but is considered to be one of the greatest JRPG titles of all time. The War of the Lions was well received for its nostalgic value, its mechanics, and its decent writing, though it often contains many references to Final Fantasy VII. Due to the scarcity of the product, most Westerners never learned of the game, or perhaps even played it. 1,000 points in a few matches. This is not only a fun game its a very easy game to learn. The game is not just a game it is a DIY guide to making a real bomb.3,5/5 DSReviewer Game "WAGAMAMA HIGH SPEC" The game is great for a simple game and will test your ability to think fast while retaining focus on one task. (.) It is not for noobs, but there is a reason it came out as one of the bestselling DS games. 3,5/5 The Gamer Game "WAGAMAMA HIGH SPEC" Playability: The game is pretty simple, but this is because there is really not much that you need to know before going to the game store. So, there is no "learning curve" and a the point of downloading it is to just have fun. (.) Its very light weight and will not bog down your computer. However, there are a lot of things you need to learn about when making the bombs, so if you dont know anything about electronics its best to try this game once before playing the game to see if you would like to play it. 3,5/5 DS Reviewer Game "WAGAMAMA HIGH SPEC" Controls: You pretty much just hit the buttons on the DS screen to make things happen. The buttons are easy to use and are a good amount of game so there is not a lot of time spent learning how to use the buttons and playing the game. If you have ever played a controller game that requires a lot of button pressing they are going to be right at home. You can play with people on the internet to earn collectibles and also unlock new characters.3,5/5 DS Reviewer Game "WAGAMAMA HIGH SPEC" Fun: The game is a blast and is addictive as well. (.) The main problem with the game is that you will probably want to have a friend

Congratulations to Adam Hill! 2nd Place: Steven Martin Another exciting round of matches this week! Steven, you did a great job of taking a single Life, putting out a single attack, and hopefully having another show this week. You came within two bolts of capturing the Gold so your efforts this week were really inspiring to watch. Many thanks for the solid match-ups and great attitude under pressure. Division Round 1 6th Place: Mack Hill Mack, Great effort again, thank you for the games! 7th Place: Ryan Healy Also a solid effort, congrats Ryan! Division Round 2 Champion 4th Place: Ridge Reagan If Ridge keeps this momentum up he will be in the finals, no doubt. 5th Place: Alec Gilliland Another solid effort under the pressure. 6th Place: Kristin Christian The loss is somewhat of a joint effort with this round. Not much to say really, well played. 7th Place: Kat Bupp Kat still seems to be putting in such a lot of effort, great to keep it up! 8th Place: Ronda Trosenbach Ronda just suffers from a hill most of the time. 9th Place: Eric Swenson Eric, this round didn't really do much for you, those points are horrible! 10th Place: Anna Forsgren Another outstanding effort by Anna, hope you're able to enjoy the relaxed atmosphere of the Gold. 11th Place: Kevin Cairns Sebastian, this round was excellent! 12th Place: Sebastian Berglund Sorry Sebastian, a little lack of concentration out there. 13th Place: David Doswell David, even though this round won't do a lot for you, it is still very nice to
