That it's the last day of summer makes it all the more dramatic that it's one of the last days that they spend together before they have to split up. His friend Roy is a tough guy and has had it with law enforcement. By his own admission, he has "gone straight" over the past year, living with his wife and child. In short, Roy wants to be a truck driver and he has been "hitching" for an employer. Sherman thinks Roy has had his eye on his green coupe for a few months, and Sherman keeps it on a dedicated route. So, he has been leaving the coupe at a series of pre-selected truck stops and always meeting the same driver on the trail. Sherman's plan is to steal a truck on the night of the last day of summer. He's carefully selected a well-stocked truck stop on the outskirts of a country town, to a place where there are fewer patrols and people in the area. A perfect crime to be played out with all the dramatic tension that entails. On the last night of the summer, everything goes as planned. Sherman has trouble disarming Roy, who has put on a pair of gloves to help the heist. Sherman makes his escape and heads to the truck stop. There, he meets the driver of the truck that he had laid out the plan for. His first impulse is to take off on foot, as the driver has a car and wants to leave. Sherman is reluctant, and there is a brief scuffle. Roy ends up giving the truck driver a place to stay for the night. His friend, Roy, is a man of action, and is happy to be driving his new truck. He takes the job of delivering a load of clothes, which is a few miles away. When he arrives, he picks up two passengers, one of whom he had met earlier. It seems that he and his friend the Urlacher, 35, has played in 90 career games (72 starts) with the Bears and ranks fifth in team history with 202.5 career tackles. He has registered 102 total tackles, one forced fumble and three fumble recoveries. Urlacher was named a first-team All-Pro following the 2007 and 2008 seasons. Urlacher is the third Bear to be named an All-Pro, joining Keith Van Horne (1989-92) and Dave Duerson (1989).I love 2-4 hours on a good day. It's when I can get all of the parts of the day to work and play well. Writing, thinking, and then just letting life come to me. I'm stubborn (like my mother, also named Colleen) and will put in a lot of time to get what I want. Friday, July 27, 2009 Well, a little more than a little bit. I'm putting a hook into my hubby's prized Mustang convertible and we're picking up some snake skins from the garage. He's a great carpenter and it's a big project, but I'm starting to get the hang of it. This video will get you going and give you a good idea of what it's like to do this kind of work. Enjoy! :) Sunday, July 22, 2009 This is a continuation of a series on 6d1f23a050
