The Riftbreaker™ is an action-RPG survival game in which you have to build a base. You are an elite scientist/commando in an advanced mecha suit capable of protecting you and your comrades from alien invaders. In order to survive, you will have to explore the planet you are stranded on looking for resources or aliens that might be useful. There are four types of game modes waiting for you in the game: campaign, solo experience, cooperative mode, and online challenge.
