the narrator of the novel is an elf who was a girl at that time. she feels the need to understand why she is the way she is and why she ended up in that situation. to this end, she decides to go to the country of elves to find out more about this. and once she arrives at the palace, she realizes that there is a great conspiracy between the people of the country of elves. the conclusion of the novel is about a search for the original female elven on the throne of elves. in a universe ruled by sensual magic, immerse yourself in a fantasy world of elves and their rituals. you will see that there are two types of elves: the moon elves and the wood elves. although the two have in fact shared ancestors, mixed-elf love is a rarity at best but certainly not forbidden. nor is it impossible. on the rare occasion that a moon elf and a wood elf fall in love, an ancient tradition is set in place and must be followed carefully. the story will tell about the enmity of seemingly identical races - elves. however, there are many things that differentiate beings. falling in love between representatives of clans is considered to be something unusual. and in order for an alliance to be concluded between them, a special ritual is required. at a certain point, the two come together in a sensual kiss. the energy is too much for them, and they begin to fuse. the two elves merge and lose their individual consciousness. only their love can save them. a ritual! a prophecy! the power of ancient tradition! in the new world of the elves, there is a great war raging. the gods are angry. they have killed the great elven king. the elves are on the verge of annihilation. the eldest of all elves gives his people one last chance. he tells them to leave their homes and gather in the sacred grove. there they will live and make a new great king. the ritual will begin. the people obey. he gathers them in the sacred grove. he tells them to begin the ritual. the new great king is chosen. and the elves live happily ever after. 5ec8ef588b
